THE GAZETTE.

TUE-DAY EVENING, SEPT, 6, 1892.

FEARS THE PROPHECY.-Heavy artillery firing on Thursday led the people of Berlin to think that the accouchment of the Empress had occurred. Later it was learned that the firing merely accompanied a sham fight on the outskirts of the city. The accouchment of the Empress has been expected daily for the last two weeks, and now may take place at any moment. Both parents are eager that the child shall be a girl. The Emperor is especially anxious, as the peculiar prophecy on the subject by a Catholic monk was brought recently to his attention. The record of the prophecy was found in the Prussian archives. It was made centuries ago and runs substantially as follows: After receiving a mortal blow from a conquerer who shall come from the west (supposed to be Napoleon I) the German empire shall be erected again two generations later by a monarch of a new dynasty (Emperor William I). who will live to a great age, rule long, and, owing to the wisdom of his government, be beloved by all his subjects. He will be followed by a monarch who will have but a short reign (Emperor Frederick), and the latter will be fol-lowed by a third monarch who will have seven sons, none of whom will ascend the throne.

This prophecy is said to have taken a pecular hold upon the Emperor's vivid imagination, and he fears that by be-coming the father of the seventh son he will fulfil its conditions.
